

ABSTRACT

A method for producing an  $\alpha$ -alumina powder is described. The method for producing an  $\alpha$ -alumina powder comprises a step of calcining an aluminum salt in the presence of a seed crystal at 600-890°C.